W. J. COO NOW PRESIDENT

OF LAWN BOWLING CLUB

W. J. Coe was elected by acclamation as president of the Semiahmoo Lawn Bowling Club at its annual meeting on Wednesday night. Mr. Coe is a comparatively new resident but is an old bowler and proved his prowess last season, both as an expert and as an executive officer. The other officials chosen are: Miss Clark, vice-president; W. C. Frank, secretary; H. C. Bloom, treasurer; E. Colin James, auditor; committeemen, Mrs. Calderbank, Mrs. Hennessy and Mrs. Work; Hon. president, J. H. Vidal.

It was a dinner meeting held at Ruby's Lodge, with few if any bowlers absent and several visitors, prospective members. After discussing the good things provided the meeting got down to business. The routine included reports of officers and committees, all generally satisfactory. Mrs. Calderbank's report showed how effective had been the energetic efforts of the lady members in providing the high teas once a week as a net result of which they had a comfortable cash balance in hand which they voted should be devoted to reduction of certain overhead indebtedness. The treasurer, J. D. McMillan also had a good statement and also he made a splendid report as delegate to the B. C. Bowling Association. There had been a decrease in fees at the tournament but an increase in revenue and membership, the latter now 1728. And the bowling fraternity had gone over the top and sent over $2500. to the Queen's Save The Children Fund. Secretary Frank also made an interesting summary of the season's activities. After he and the treasurer had elucidated the the overhead debt the meeting voted again to sell the upper lot and pay off the mortgage and otherwise care for the small remaining debt.

Some of the standing committees were elected as follows: Green, president; secretary and Hugh

REMEMBRANCE DAY

There was a splendid attendance at the Memorial Service in the Anglican church hall last Wednesday. The Veterans were present in strength, along with the Auxiliaries. Rev. W. R. Jeffcott conducted the service and was ably assisted by Rev. Hardy, who gave the prayers and Rev. A. T. McIntosh who read the Bible lesson.

Wreaths were laid at the Cross followed by two minutes of silence. Unfortunately there was no one to sound the "Last Post."

Rev. Jeffcott took his text from the anthem "What Are These" by Stainer, which was sung previous to his address. He spoke very strongly on the question of what the people as a whole, saying they were the church, were doing to help remedy the faults that had caused the present conflict. He urged them to see to it that the next generation are not subjected to a similar calamity. We have fallen down, he said.

The combined choir, under the direction of Miss M. Grant, contributed to the singing of the hymns and anthem, and were heartily supported by the big congregation.

TAG DAY

An arrangement is being made for a tag day on Saturday, November 28th, in the interest of the Canadian Russian Relief. This will be handled through the Red Cross and locally the Semiahmoo Junior Senior High School girls will do the canvassing. The Russian people are in need of clothes and medicine.

Baker; house, Mrs. Standing, Mrs. Calderbank and Mrs. Hennessy.

The new president presented to the winners, the three silver cups in annual competition: Ladies' singles, Mrs. Standing; mixed doubles, Mrs. Calderbank and Mr. Baker; men's singles, Hugh Baker. The meeting closed with hearty votes of thanks to all retiring officers and to the caterers.

Finished articles at the work room for the month numbered 220. Work is increasing every day, this month deals with prisoners of war regulations. If you are a next-of-kin and are confused as to procedure communicate with Mrs. Ballard, Secretary of the local branch.

Here are a few items of interest regarding the situation:

All Dieppe prisoners were immediately sent "capture" parcels by the Canadian Red Cross in London which contained underwear, tooth paste, etc. Remember that food parcels to prisoners can be sent only through the Red Cross.

Acknowledgement by card will be sent to senders as soon as possible, but such service is necessarily slow under present conditions.

Saturday, Nov. 28th, will be the Russian Relief Tag Day. High school students will serve as Taggers.

The monthly meeting on Monday was well attended and much interesting data was discussed. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Calderbank, vice-president was in the chair.

Last year we realized about $50 in the No-Christmas Cards for friends in White Rock. Already several people have signified their desire to join the group again. If so minded give your names to the Secretary or Treasurer.

The Junior Red Cross, according to a report submitted by Mrs. H. Foley Liason Officer, is doing exceptionally well this fall. The lower school, under supervision of Miss Mavis Graham and Mrs. Iris Simpson, is starting a rubber salvage drive, taking advantage of the seasonal discarding of old rubber overshoes for new.

The third and fifth grades have each cleared about $8 on their hot-dog sales at noon. Other classes are planning to follow suit. Afghan squares and quilt blocks are among the other products of the group.

The High School group, sponsored by Miss Kay Beierly and Miss Margaret Bardal, has over 50 members and are turning out a quantity of work of excellent quality. A recent penny drive brought in over $5. Among their plans for the future art hot-dog sales, shoe-shine stands, etc. Miss Roma Nestman is president of this group, Miss Mary Aitken, vice-president and Miss Geraldine Stevens, secretary.

THE MASTODON EXHIBIT

It was an interesting evening for those who attended the Dinosaurs exhibit last Thursday, which added to the funds of the A.R.P. and Red Cross the sum of $375 each.

The exhibit consisted, mainly of the lower jaw of a mastodon and a piece of a tusk, found by Mr. Geo. Woodforth, son-in-law of Mrs. R. E. Clark, Marine Drive. The evening was filled out by Mr. Barge's pictures of the district taken personally and one of Dunkirk and one of the Commandos in Norway. Mr. Leo Williams' talk on prehistoric animals was quite interesting and illustrated with coloured plates.

WHITE ROCK GIRL GUIDES

During the past week-end the White Rock Girl Guides were hostesses to the annual Camp Reunion. Thirteen members of No. 2 and No. 3 companies of New Westminster, who had attended camp this summer at Wilson's Creek, arrived on the Friday evening train and were guests at the homes of the various members. Friday evening a re-union camp fire was held in the Army and Navy hall. Saturday morning the Guides sold Boy's in the King's Service, Miss Popples for the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Legion as had been their custom for the past few years. They were the guests at a delicious luncheon at noon.

Saturday afternoon the girls attended a theatre party at the Park Theatre. That evening a costume party was held in the hall. There was a great variety of costumes. The evening was spent in games, skits, contests and followed by refreshments.

Sunday morning the entire group attended service in the United Church where they were welcomed by the Rev. Mr. Frank. Then followed an enrollment in the Sunday School room.

The visiting Guides left on the noon train. They were most enthusiastic over their delightful week-end in White Rock. The captain, Mrs. Shatford, is deserving of great praise for her work among the Girl Guides of White Rock.

Every householder is interested in control of prices. On Friday, Nov. 20, under the auspices of the Women's Institute, Mr. A. W. Crowley, Licensing Officer, will speak at 3 p. m. at the White Rock hotel. This is free to the public. Both men and women are welcome. Come prepared to ask questions.

ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual meeting of the White Rock Board of the Fraser Valley Union Library will be held in the Library on Saturday, November 14th at 4.30 p. m. Members please attend, also anyone who is interested in this important service.

Eric Streatfield,
Chairman of the Board.

JOHN CHARLES ASHTON

John Charles Ashton, who died recently in a Vancouver hospital, had resided permanently in White Rock for the past three years. Before that he was an annual summer resident. He had shortly completed a modern home overlooking Marine Drive.

Mr. Ashton, who was 68 years of age, came to Canada in 1905 and to British Columbia in 1907. He served for four years overseas in the First World War, being attached to the 72nd Highlanders. He was employed by the Vancouver Post Office for twelve years.

Surviving are his wife, two sons, Eric and Harvey, and one daughter, Mrs. G. Gregson. The funeral was held in Vancouver, November 3rd, Lt.-Col. C. C. Owen, D. D. officiating. Interment was in the Soldiers' plot, Mt. View Cemetery.

GET-TOGETHER MEETING

An invitation is extended to mothers, wives and their young children to a get acquainted rally to be held at the Legion hall, Pier rooms, on Tuesday, November 17th from 3 to 5 p. m. Refreshments will be served. This rally is under the auspices of the Canadian Legion W. A.

BAZAAR MOST SUCCESSFUL

A most successful Bazaar was held on Wednesday, November 4th by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Army and Navy Veterans, White Rock in their hall.

Mrs. A. W. Robinson, of North Vancouver, and past president, was asked by Mrs. N. Henry, the president to open the Bazaar. Mrs. Robinson paid tribute to the Auxiliary for their work of providing Christmas treats for the Boys in the King's Service. Miss Inez Hillman, little daughter of the of the Legion as had been their Auxiliary's secretary, presented Mrs. Robinson a lovely bouquet of fall flowers tied with pale pink ribbon.

Tea was served to a large crowd during the afternoon. The president announced the selling out of all stalls and that a good sum was realized for the Soldiers Comforts. Little Inez was then asked by Mrs. Henry to draw a ticket from the box containing the hundreds sold on a beautiful hand knitted afghan. The lucky one being No. 822, held by Miss Peggy Hardy of White Rock.

The Auxiliary wish to announce the starting of the Military whist drives for the fall and winter. The first game to be played on Wednesday, November 25th, at 8 p. m. in the Army and Navy hall, White Rock. It is hoped to see a full crowd as the proceeds of this game are for the Soldiers Comfort Funds. The Auxiliary sent twelve Christmas parcels overseas last month to the Boys "Over There" and also sent cigarettes during the summer months, which we are glad to announce have been received. There are quite a lot of parcels to be made up for the Boys serving here in Canada and different places this side of the sea. These will be sent in due time for Christmas.

Pictures of the Army and Navy at work will be shown on Friday, November 27th, particulars as to place and time will be announced later.

Homemakers' Corner

"Time doth softly, sweetly glide when there's love at home"

Dear Homemakers:-

If we were asked which of all the celebrations of the year most strongly appeals to us, we should say Remembrance Day. We think of it as a second Thanksgiving Day, for it is then that people of all faiths trek to the little white church on the hill to give thanks for, and to honour the memory of, the many brave men and women who gave their lives to preserve our homes—homes in which love, truth and Godliness may flourish unhampered.

Let us homemakers, far from the scene of battle, be not idle. Let us daily have remembrance in our hearts and strive to make our homes and home life worthy of the sacrifices our loved ones have made.

As we write this there comes to our mind these lines from Longfellow's.

Santa Filomena

"Whenever a noble deed is wrought,
Whenever is spoken a noble thought,

Our hearts in glad surprise
To higher levels rise.
The tidal wave of deeper souls
Into our inmost being rolls.
And lifts us unawares
Out of all meaner cares."

Fathers of Heroes Buy Victory Bonds

Yard Foreman R. Smith, of Ottawa, one of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's volunteer Victory Bond salesmen, selling a substantial bond to Conductor A. C. Trudeau before the latter starts on his morning way-freight run.

Yard Foreman Smith's son, Sgt. Pilot Donald Smith, of the R.C.A.F., was killed in air operations over Germany on August 13th, 1941. A second son, Lieut. Lorne L. Smith, is at present overseas on active service with the Glangarry Highlanders.

Conductor Trudeau also had a son, Cpl. Joseph Keith Trudeau, R.C.A.F., killed on active service. This occurred during the Blitz over England in April, 1941. Another son, Basil Trudeau, who was a trainman with the Canadian Pacific Railway, at Ottawa, is at present training with the R.C.A.F. as a pilot. In picture left to right, Yard Foreman R. ## WHY NOT?

We wish it understood that we have nothing to say against the Surrey-Langley hospital plan, but there is quite a feeling in this district that this is a logical place for a hospital.

It has always been recommended as a good place for convalescents, the climate is healthy, practically no fog in winter, the sea breeze is beneficial, and there is less snow.

We have in mind a building that could be remodelled into a hospital for a far smaller cost than a new building, and answer all the purposes necessary and could be done quickly.

It might be said that there is no doctor here. That is true, but how long would it be, if there was a hospital here, before there was a doctor willing to locate? Not long.

Then there is the matter of transportation, a vital question these days; the population is here that would go a long way to support one.

What is lacking is the co-operation of the whole community behind an objective of this nature, once a community spirit is forthcoming it is surprising what can be accomplished. We have seen such a plan realized in a community a great deal smaller than this and the benefit it has been to many. It was the community spirit that put it over.

WATCH THOSE FARM MOTORS

Is there a saboteur at work on your farm? He'll throw a monkey-wrench into production. Dust, grime, congealed grease, gladdies of excessive oil sabotage farm motors—slows them up, puts them out of action. Interrupted motor operation retards farm production, reduces the output of primary products essential to our fighting forces. Don't let it happen. Remove dirt accumulations before the damage is done. A vacuum cleaner easily and cheaply converted to blow does the best job. If there is dirt in your electric motor, blow it out—all out, for victory.

Your B.C. Electric representative can give you a score of hints. Ask him; they'll save you time and dollars.

CONSTRUCTIVE

FOREST POLICY

"That a definite forest policy is in the minds of the Members of the Legislature at the coming session," said Hon. H. H. Stevens, "is proven by the fact that the brief presented to the Provincial Cabinet by the British Columbia Natural Resources Conservation League, has received the full approval of more than forty Members of the Legislature, a large percentage of the Members of the House of Commons, and also the Boards of Trade and City councils in the Province.

Members of the Legislature and the House of Commons have agreed to become Honorary Patrons of the League, and to assist in formulating a policy for the preservation of the scenic beauty spots of British Columbia, and in a long-range forest policy that will continue to bring revenue for years to come, also to protect the scenic spots and watersheds of this Province. This interest on their part is greatly appreciated by the League.

Under the present rate of logging, the forests have only a few years of life, but with proper forest conservation and a definite policy of reforestation, the timber industry can be made to produce crops from year to year the same as any other commodity. With this idea in view, it is the intention of the League to present to the Legislature at its next session for consideration a sound natural resource conservation policy.

The League have been deeply impressed with the keen interest exhibited by the Provincial Government and its civil staff, which is looked upon as a guarantee of a far-sighted and generous policy for the conservation of the forests, not only from a commercial standpoint, but also in the preservation of the scenic beauty spots of the Province.

An ounce of thought may be worth a pound of muscle.

TWO YOUNG MEN

with faith in themselves

BEFORE the war, two young graduates in chemistry faced the future with no assets but technical training and unbounded faith in themselves. They planned to capitalize on their years in college by manufacturing a certain chemical product. "But we'll need some money to get started," they said. "Let's put it up to the bank."

Their banker decided that their faith was well founded in character, ability, energy. "We'll finance you to start in a small way," he said. "Make a test on the local market first."

Presently the product was being sold all over Canada and exported to the United States and overseas. Now it fills a wartime demand. The enterprise employs a large number of people.

This actual example illustrates how this country's Chartered Banks help credit-worthy people to benefit themselves, their fellows and their country under the democratic system of free enterprise.

Banks, like any other business, exist because they provide service which a community needs and is willing to pay for at a rate which will yield a reasonable profit. Chartered Bank profits average less than one-half of one per cent a year on total assets. Few, if any, other businesses operate on as small a margin.

LOOKING IN AND LOOKING OUT

By Quercus

Poetry. I was merely a third party when the subject under discussion veered around to poetry. One of the other two had been born and bred on the western Canadian prairies, while the third claimed the Scottish lowlands as the place of his birth and upbringing. Both were slightly "in their cups." The Scot seemed to be searching for a "clincher" wherewith to prove that his western born friend could have no understanding or appreciation of the subject and finally he came out with it: "Mon," he said "ye canna' ha'e any proper feelin' for poetry; why ye've never seen a hedge row."

Time was when I would have found myself in sympathy with my Scottish friend's viewpoint, but those days have passed. I know now that poetry comes from the broad prairies, or the towering mountains might reflect, or be influenced by the mountains or the prairies in its feelings—will be different perhaps but not necessarily inferior. This is true also of the sister art of painting, as a comparison of much Canadian painting of the last quarter century with most earlier work will testify.

Painting. Whether we agree with or admire, the famous "Group of Seven," of which Mr. A. Y. Jackson is perhaps the outstanding exponent, or otherwise, less readily admit that the spirit, the feeling of Canada is more truthfully portrayed by that school of painting than by their predecessors. The atmosphere effects shown by most of the paintings of earlier Canadian artists were European rather than Canadian. True, these effects may be seen at White Rock and other areas west of the Cascades, but not so over the greater portion of our country.

How true it is that there is beauty all around us if we only have the eyes trained to see was brought home to the writer by the following incidents:—

Motoring along a long ribbon of road on the prairies we were traveling westerly as the sun was soon to dip behind the distant Rocky Mountains. The view was a vast expanse of prairie with spurs of the Rockies as a background and a fence in the immediate foreground. The distance was a symphony in the blues and grays touched here and there by the setting sun, while in the middle distance and foreground were grain fields, home-stands and not a little of the original prairie grass just as it was left by the Indians and as it was first seen by the white man. A very ordinary scene such as may be seen on many a summer evening within a hundred and fifty miles of the eastern tip of the Rockies. And so I thought when my driver, a young man who had been brought up in that section of Canada said, after sweeping his eyes lovingly over the scene, "There's something very beautiful in scene we're looking at, I think."

I took another look and heartily agreed. I had been taught to see beauty where I had not hitherto found it. On another occasion I had had the pleasure of spending an evening with A. Y. Jackson, that really great artist above referred to who had then recently been on a sketching tour in the foothills and the near-by prairies. Of the many sketches the artist had made was one of a small western town that was well enough known to me and which I am sure most people would pass by as being uninteresting and drab. I had occasion to pass that settlement the next day with its few grain elevators, its small collection of frame buildings and its lack of trees and vegetation. But this time I looked, partially at least, through the eyes of the artist and I saw beauty where none had been before.

Humanity. Yes, there's beauty all around us if we look for it. Just as there's beauty in the souls and hearts of most of our fellow men and women. For is it not true?—There's so much good in the most of us. And there's some bad in the best of us. So it ill behoves any of us To speak ill about the rest of us.

A good character is an asset although it may not always be convertible into cash.

The "Quacks" Go To London

Members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps—or "Quacks" as they are popularly known in the Dominion—have arrived at Canadian Headquarters in London. They are to work as clerks, ordnance tradeswomen and orderlies to release men for operational duties.

The "Quacks" are recruited from twenty-one to forty age group. They wear uniforms of olive gray, similar to those worn by the A.T.S. and W.A.A.F., and peaked caps resembling "Beau Geste" kepis.

Army authorities told them they would have to "work like heavers, behave like angels, and give up any ideas of getting married for a year after arrival." They cannot marry in any case until they have first received permission from their commanding officers.

British women are being trained as motor mechanics to recondition blitzed vehicles, convert pleasure cars for war-time needs, and to do running repair work.

Women have replaced the 500 men who formerly tended London's squares, parks and gardens. They are park-keepers, under-gardeners and grounds-women.

The wise man learns to see people not as they seem, but as they are.

A Veteran at 20!

Back from scores of bombing raids over a dozen countries, this young airman has found adventure in the skies! Just out of his 'teens, an eager youth in years, he's a veteran in experience. He's a first-line fighting man, trained in the science of war at 5-miles-a-minute!

He and his buddies in R.C.A.F. air crew are team-mates. Gunner, Wireless Operator, Bomber, Pilot, Navigator—all work together as a smooth, swift "attack team" in a giant bomber. Their targets accurately surveyed in advance by daring reconnaissance pilots—their flight protected by the blazing guns of fighter planes—the bombers wing their relentless way to smash Nazi nerve-centres.

The expanded Air Training Plan has room for more men who want to be with these fighting comrades of the skies. Right now applications are being accepted for air crew duty, at R.C.A.F. Recruiting Centres throughout Canada.

If you are physically fit, mentally alert, over 17½ and not yet 33, you are eligible. If you are over 33, but have exceptional qualifications, you may still be considered. Lack of formal education is no longer a bar to enlistment.

WOMEN TOO— join "that men may fly." Canadian women fill vital jobs in the R.C.A.F. Women's Division, releasing men for air crew duties. Recruits are needed, age 18 to 40, physically fit, with at least High School entrance. Many useful and fascinating jobs await you. No experience needed. The Air Force will train you quickly to take your place with Canada's airwomen. Full information at any R.C.A.F. Recruiting Centre, or write address below for booklet.

CORRESPONDENCE

Dear Mr. Editor:

In view of the fact that a controversy has arisen in which lack of service to Terry Hoggarth and others after the sinking of the Caribou was attributed to the Red Cross, may we state that any misunderstanding which occurred when the survivors landed at Sydney has been satisfactorily explained, and that neither we nor our family attach any blame whatsoever to any one in connection with the above mentioned Society. We have always had and still have the greatest admiration for, and confidence in this organization which is doing so much for suffering humanity in both war and peace.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hoggarth

A.R.P. MEETING

The regular weekly meeting of the White Rock A.R.P. was held at the Legion hall on Monday night with T. E. Hoggarth, the District Warden in the chair, when a full docket of business was transacted. In the absence of H. Suthren, secretary-treasurer through indisposition, that office was filled by R. Bloom pro tem. The chairman first detailed the general set-up and then the duties required of each individual member in the event of an emergency. He impressed on all present that the authorities, who had access to the inner war affairs, asks us to be prepared, to be well informed in respect to our respective duties and generally to be on the qui vive. Hence the necessity for such meetings as this.

The chairman then called for a general discussion and in this the following took part: Messrs. Downs, Davie, Watson, Cheverton, Bloom, Mackness, Meech Sinclair, Dewar, Hosler and Nambie. The meeting then was reminded that the Post Wardens as appointed to date were R. Bloom, of Blooms Groceries, corner of Buena Vista and Johnson; Mr. Rerman, at Kalle's Dine and Dance and Mr. Davie, the Upton residence, Victoria ave., east of the Anglican church, while the Central Bureau is at the Police Station at the pier entrance and the Home Nursing headquarters are at the White Rock hotel. The desirability of holding a field practice was left for further consideration.

NOTICE

A special general meeting of A. R.P. post wardens and wardens, home nursing and first aid members fire and auxiliary fire department members, and demolition squad members will be held in the Legion hall at the Pier on Monday the 16th, at 8 p.m. District Warden T. E. Hoggarth in the chair, Special speaker, Fred Varty.

A MISCONSTRUCTION

We regret that through our informant's inadvertent error in reporting President Foley's remarks at the last meeting of the Canadian Legion the enlistment requirements for the Veterans' Guard and the Legion War services were not correctly published. President Foley made it quite clear that for the Veterans' Guard the age limit is 55 years down to category "C" if the applicant is in good health. The no age limit referred to the Legion War Services, if they are otherwise qualified and that only for service in Canada. For its overseas' work the age limit is 45 years for those fairly fit. As for those enjoying the War Veterans' allowance this would be stopped but restored upon discharge. They would receive the same pay and allowances as in other active services while in the Guards and there will be little drill: most of the guard duty being performed in warm, comfortable cupolas. It was hoped many anxious to help will now join and release trained men for service otherwise.

Davie Anderson, R.C.N. of Crescent, was home this week end on a three day leave from Victoria.

Mrs. Mitchell with her two sons from Luscar, Alberta, has rented one of the hotel cottages for the winter months.

Murray Watson of the Westminster Pharmacy spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Watson.

Mrs. M. Bruce has sold her home on Kell avenue to Mr. and Mrs. W. Caldwell, of Newton, and has purchased the house of Mr. Byers.

Mr. M. W. Bradshaw, on leave from Victoria, called on his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Heil last week. He has now received his wings and stripes.

Mrs. Jo. Goessl who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cameron, Washington ave., returned to her home in San Francisco on Tuesday.

Mr. John Wisdom, of Calgary, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. Abbott over the week end, where he met his daughter, Miss Mabel Wisdom, from Los Angeles. They both returned to Calgary.

Mervyn Wahl and Jack Higgins both in the R. C. N. have been home on a week's leave.

Douglas Metherall, formerly with the C.P.R. in Vancouver, is now on the staff at the G.N.R. depot here in White Rock.

The following have completed their courses and graduated from No. 6 Manning Depot on November 5th, AW2 Willcock, D. J., certificate of Honour, clerk stenographer, AW2 Willcock, V. M., clerk stenographer, AW2 Hicks, J., general medical. They have been posted to stations and are now releasing men for other duties in the R.C.A.F.

Please bring your news in early.

PRO-REC. NEWS

We had a real good turnout of young people last night, Wednesday, which is encouraging. Keep up the good work. Our old friend Jack was up in uniform looking great; couldn't resist the temptation, got into his gym clothes and gave the boys a workout. See you next Wednesday, 8 p.m., at the Blue Moon.
